Options for Georgia Continuing Education

1. Reference Material for Credit Life and Credit Accident and Sickness License (yellow booklet), sign and have it notarized. This option provides 5 hours of CE. (booklet provided by CUNA Mutual Licensing Department at Credit Union's expense) Cost of Booklet is $10.00
2. www.atlanta.adbtc.net (approved provider)
 - ❖ Click on Keep Your License under Continuing Education
 - ❖ Choose your State

- ❖ Choose your city or closest to you
- ❖ Click on Online
- ❖ Click on Individual
 - Many other lenders have recommended the Insurance Fraud-online (5 hours) as a CE course
- ❖ Click on add, scroll down and click on checkout
- ❖ Click on checkout again, if you don't have an account you will have to create one to pay for the CE course
- ❖ Once the exam has been passed, print the Affidavit of Exam Completion for your records.
The online CE is supposed to upload to the State website automatically
- ❖ Notify your Licensing Specialist once all CE has been completed and faxed/emailed to the appropriate destinations

If you have chosen to use the Yellow Booklet for part of your CE, fax the Certification from the booklet to: 608-236-6007 or email it to CunaMutualLicensingDepartment@cunamutual.com, with the following details - Attn: Lending Licensing Subject: GA Credit Insurance CE

FINAL STEP:

- ❖ Complete the Individual Renewal form and email it to:
